

Piano Pupils Are Presented in United Nations Recital

Piano pupils of Lois Balsley were heard in a recital commemorating United Nations Day on Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church. Students taking part had continued their work through the summer months and were being recognized for their efforts. Each chose a country to represent in music.

Dianne Lippard opened with "Rock of Ages" for a good foundation for the U. N. Selections from Mrs. Balsley's book, "Small Tunes for Small People" were played by John Carman, Cynthia Smith, Mabel Monge, Marianne Scharr, Candace Meyer and Cynthia Kelly. Richardo Jurado, Larry Wilson and Glenn Meyer played folk songs.

Others were "I Love Little TO BUY, SELL OR EXCHANGE—FAirfax 8-4000

"Pussy" from Siam, Debby Eason; "The Jungle Band," India, Georgie Ann Jurado; "Fleecy Clouds," Bolivia, Jo Ann Kajikawa; "Coventry Gardens," England, Susan Godward; "Indian Rain Dance," Michael Carman; "Song of the Prairie," Argentina, Irene Monge; "Tally Ho," England, Cheryl Ceder.

Also, "Singing Juggler," England, Silvia Skillman; "March of Victory," France, Byron Godward; "The Toy Shop," Switzerland, Ruth Mitchell; "Scotch Poem," Dianne Lippard; "The Butterfly," Brazil, June Mitchell; "Exodus," Israel, Marcia Atchison; "Jocularity," Hungarian Gypsy, Sylvia Olquin; "Lady Betty," England, Mary Argueta; "Blue Danube Waltz," Austria, Floydell Clark; "Madrilena," Spain, Connie Pederson; and Debussy's "Golliwog's Cake Walk," Mrs. Lois Balsley.

Halldale Spook Parade Friday

Ghosts and goblins will reign as 857 students march in the annual Halloween costume parade at Halldale Avenue School Friday, Oct. 27, at 9:30 a.m.

Halldale Avenue PTA will hold its first money-raising project, a bake sale, immediately following the event. Pastries will be donated by PTA members. Coffee will also be sold prior to the parade.

Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, principal, stressed the importance of safety, placing particular emphasis on: non-flammable costumes, children removing masks before crossing streets, and "Trick or Treaters" being accompanied by adults.

At Tournament

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Easley were among the group of golfers from this area who attended the annual golf tournament at Gilman from Thursday until Sunday of last week.

HALLOWEEN MASQUERADE . . . Victor Woman's Club members will be joined by their husbands for a Halloween party Saturday evening at the James Bruno home, 20815 Victor. An evening of dancing will be followed by a midnight buffet. Mrs. Joseph Marchesan may be called for information. Making ready for an evening of fun are from left, Frank McDonald and Mrs. McDonald, co-hosts, James Bruno and Mrs. Bruno. Membership is made up of residents of the Victor tract.

Visitors Are Honored at Party Series

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Voss of Kansas City, Mo., who spent the past two weeks here as guests of Mrs. Voss' sister, Mrs. W. C. Boswell and family, left Monday morning for their home.

The visitors were entertained at a series of parties during their stay.

Sorority Announces Fall Show

Eta Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority will hold its third annual fashion show Oct. 26 at the Western Country club, 12009 S. Western Ave.

The "Fashion Cruise" will feature an array of the latest fall fashions in clothing, shoes and hair styles, provided by Gardena firms.

The cruise theme will be carried out in table decorations emphasized with shells, anchors, buoys, stars and ocean scenes.

Anselma Lemon will serve as commentator for the show. Elizabeth Launer, president, will welcome members and guests.

Modeling the new fashions will be Peggy Boy, Virginia Bry, Marguerite Duke, Pearl Giuliano, Billie Grigg, Kay Heikes, Elizabeth Launer, Laura Pesola, Jackie Tracey, Madeline Tracey and Esther Wallin.

Refreshments will be served at intermission by the ship stewardesses, "The Mariners."

Tickets will be available at the door and all proceeds will go to the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation.
